free FIRC counseling can help

If you are in danger of losing your primary residence due to foreclosure, please contact the Family & Intercultural Resource Center (FIRC) for our free foreclosure counseling service. Foreclosure Counselors can help homeowners explore options such as repayment plans, loan modifications, and refinancing through their bank or mortgage company.

Our goal is to help you stay in your home, but in some cases this will not be possible. Foreclosure Counselors can help homeowners explore options for minimizing the financial loss incurred through foreclosure, and with the transition to new housing.

How do I apply for services from the FIRC Foreclosure Counseling Program?

Contact FIRC at 970-262-3888 and ask about foreclosure counseling, or email davids@summitfirc.org.

Visit SummitFIRC.org for more details or to submit a counseling survey.
