NOW, THEREFORE, the Town, for itself and its successors and assigns, hereby declares that the Property will at all times be purchased, owned, used, occupied, rented, sold, resold, and conveyed subject to the provisions of this Restrictive Covenant, which runs with the Property and binds all parties having any right, title, or interest in the Property, or any portion thereof, and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, devisees and personal representatives.

3. Occupancy Restriction. Except as provided in Section 4, the Property shall at all times be occupied by at least one (1) Qualified Occupant as his or her principal place of residence.

4. Exceptions. Notwithstanding Section 3, it is not a violation of this Restrictive Covenant if the Property is occupied or used as the principal place of residence by a person otherwise authorized to occupy the Property pursuant to this Restrictive Covenant who becomes disabled after commencing lawful occupancy of the Property such that he or she cannot work the required number of hours each week required by this Restrictive Covenant; provided, however, that such person is permitted to occupy the Property only for a maximum period of one year following the commencement of such person's disability unless a longer period of occupancy is authorized by Town.

5. Rent or Lease of the Property. Each Owner may rent or lease the Property provided that: (i) the Property is rented or leased only to a Qualified Occupant(s); (ii) a tenant may not sublease all or any portion of the Property; and (iii) the Property may not be rented or leased for a term of less than 90 days (no short term rental). At the time of each subsequent closing of the transfer of title to a Property, a new Appreciation Limiting Promissory Note shall be executed by the purchaser(s) and delivered to the Town, and a new Appreciation Limiting Deed of Trust shall be executed by the purchaser(s) and recorded in the Summit County, Colorado real estate records. At the time of closing of each transfer of title to a Property the Town shall determine whether the transfer complies with the requirements of this Restrictive Covenant. If the transfer complies with the requirements of this Restrictive Covenant, the Town shall mark the selling Property Owner's Appreciation Limiting Promissory Note as paid and execute a request for release of the Appreciation Limiting Deed of Trust upon verification to the Town by the title company or other independent agent responsible for closing on the transfer of title to a Property that the amount paid for the purchase of the Property does not exceed the Maximum Resale Price or that, if the price exceeds the Maximum Resale Price, the amount of such excess will be paid to the Town. If title to a Property is transferred without obtaining the release of an Appreciation Limiting Deed of Trust securing an appreciation Limiting Promissory Note in favor of the Town, the Town, among other rights available to it, shall have the right to foreclose said Appreciation Limiting Deed of Trust.

8. Annual Verification; Other Information.

If Town complies with these requirements the Owner shall permit Town's entry into the Property. Town's rights under this Section 9 may also be exercised by Town's authorized agent. If an Owner fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this Section 9 Town shall have the right to obtain access to the Property in the manner provided by law.

10. Payment of Taxes and Prior Encumbrances. During the term of this Restrictive Covenant each Owner shall pay, prior to delinquency, all taxes and assessments levied against the Property, and all amounts due or to become due on account of principal and interest on any prior encumbrance against the Property.

Upon notification to such Owner of the costs incurred by Town the Owner shall promptly pay to Town the full amount of costs and/or expenses incurred by Town pursuant to this Section 11, together with interest thereon at the legal rate.

12. Default; Notice. If an Owner fails to comply with this Restrictive Covenant, Town may inform such Owner by written notice of such failure and provide such Owner a period of time to correct such failure. If the failure is not corrected to the satisfaction of Town within the specified time, which shall be at least 30 days after Town mails written notice to such Owner, or within such further time as Town determines is necessary to correct the violation (but not to exceed any limitation set by applicable law), Town may without further notice declare a default under this Restrictive Covenant effective on the date of such declaration of default. Town may then proceed to enforce this Restrictive Covenant.

15. Waiver; Termination; Modification of Covenant. The restrictions, covenants, and limitations of this Restrictive Covenant may be waived, terminated, or modified only with the written consent of Town and the then-current owner of the Property as of the date of such waiver, termination, or modification. - (ii) the offer has been rejected by Town or has been allowed to expire; and
- (iii) Owner or any designated third person may rely upon such statement by Town as evidence of the submission and rejection or expiration of a valid offer made to Town pursuant to and in accordance with this Agreement.
